

3rd Resilience in Healthcare Masterclass 2017

A two day course for researchers and health professionals who want to learn how to apply resilience engineering concepts to improve care quality and safety.

Organised by the Centre for Applied Resilience in Healthcare (CARE) and supported by the West Midlands Patient Safety Collaborative.

9 - 10 October 2017

De Vere Colmore Gate, Birmingham.

Registration is £200 and includes:

Two days' intensive learning about applying an organisational resilience approach to improving the quality of care.

Guest keynote by Prof. Jeffrey Braithwaite.

Restaurant dinner and networking event.

Please visit our site for registration: <http://resiliencecentre.org.uk/masterclass>
If you have any questions please email: masterclass@resiliencecentre.org.uk

Snow Hill Station is directly opposite the venue De Vere Colmore Gate.
Birmingham New Street Station is a 10 minute walk.

Suggested nearby accommodation - Holiday Inn Express Birmingham, Snow Hill.
Rooms booked in connection to the event are available at £65 B&B.

Participants are encouraged to identify a care quality problem they would like to address during the masterclass with the assistance of resilience experts.

West Midlands Patient
Safety Collaborative
WEST MIDLANDS ACADEMIC HEALTH SCIENCE NETWORK

Guy's and St Thomas'
NHS Foundation Trust NHS

